

Mark Acree, CPL
Three Rivers Resources Co.

Mr. Acree is President of Three Rivers Resources Co., an energy consulting practice providing services in land negotiations, acquisitions and divestitures, project management, business development, governmental and legislative support, recruiting, and leadership and professional development.

Mr. Acree is a Certified Professional Landman (CPL) with 37 years of oil and gas industry experience, including 30 years executive and managerial experience. Mr. Acree has worked on joint ventures and exploration programs with numerous industry partners in many of the major exploration and development plays across the US, coordinated all land-related activities in large scale leasing, joint venture, drilling programs and acquisitions and divestitures with capital budgets in the billions.

During the past 20 years, Mr. Acree held executive and/or senior managerial positions with Range Resources – Appalachia LLC, (a subsidiary of Range Resources Corporation) and Noble Energy, Inc., both with significant assets in the Appalachian region.

Mr. Acree has participated in internship and scholarship evaluations at major universities, and focused his attention on mentoring and leadership development opportunities for land professionals entering the workforce and expanding their careers.

Mr. Acree is an alumni of the University of Tulsa, and holds a B.S. in Business Administration, with emphasis in Accounting and MIS.

Mr. Acree is a member, former regional director and has chaired various committees within the American Association of Professional Landmen (AAPL), including Education and Certification, and his current position as Chairman of the AAPL Accreditation Committee. He is also member and past President of the Michael Late Benedum Chapter (MLBC) of AAPL.

Mr. Acree is a founding member of the Energy Land Management Advisory Boards of West Virginia University, Penn State University and Marietta College. He is also an alumni and serves on the Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of Western Pennsylvania and Washington County Junior Achievement; and a member of various oil and gas industry, social and fraternal associations, including the Northern Appalachian Landman's Association (NALA), West Virginia Independent Oil and Gas Association (WVIOGA), Pennsylvania Independent Oil and Gas Association (PIOGA), Ohio Oil and Gas Association (OOGA), the Masonic Lodge of Ohio and Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity (University of Tulsa chapter).