

Jeanine Haller Piskurich

Jeanine Haller Piskurich, CPL, has extensive industry experience within the lower 48 states in acquisitions, divestments, business development, new entry access and exploration and development activities totaling in excess of 1 million acres and $2 billion.

Jeanine is a recognized industry leader serving on the American Association of Professional Landman's Board of Directors as well as their Long Range Strategic Planning Committee. Presently, she is the NAPE Operators Committee Chairman Emeritus. She was recently appointed to the IPAA/PESA Petroleum Academies Education Advisory Board and was named a 2016 Role Model by the Greater Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce. She is a Past President of the Houston Association of Professional Landmen and was honored as their Landman of the Year in 2004. Jeanine was recognized as Who's Who in Energy by the Houston Business Journal in 2013-2014 and 2015-2016 and was selected as a Finalist in the Landman category in the 2014 Texas Top Producers Program by the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners and Texas Monthly Magazine. She was recognized in the Houston Business Journal's 2015 Inaugural Women in Energy Leadership awards and was named Best Landman by TIPRO and Texas Monthly Magazine in their 2015 Texas Top Producers awards.

Outside of the oil and gas industry, Jeanine is the vice chair of BP's Political Action Committee Board of Directors and has served on the Advisory Committee for U.S. Representative John Culberson since 2003. Mentorship also plays a strong role in Jeanine's community involvement, including Women's Energy Network of Houston, Junior Achievement of Houston, United Way and the National Charity League. She is an active member and volunteer leader within Second Baptist Church's student ministry and serves on the Campus Improvement Team at Spring Forest Middle School. She is married to Nick Piskurich and is the mother of two daughters, Caroline and Catherine.