THE WONDER OF WEB

According to a 12-year study, mobile delivered the GREATEST INCREMENTAL SALES at $26.52 per 1,000 impressions.³

LANDMAN.ORG

In June 2019, AAPL introduced a refreshed website that boasts improved functionality — including being mobile friendly — and upgraded content, both of which support our core principles to serve the energy business as a trusted resource and industry leader.

AAPL's website serves as home base for our members who regularly visit for education event info, certification maintenance, board meeting details, advocacy news, Contract Center access and more.

Landman.org also serves as a one-stop shop for the general public who are curious about landmen and landwork. There is also a page where the public may verify an individual's membership and certification status.

- ▶ Landman.org averages around 33,000 views each month.

▶ EMAIL ADVERTISEMENTS

With an email audience larger than our membership count, advertising in email blasts is a great way to reach over 34,000 individuals.

The Landline e-newsletter is delivered monthly on the third Thursday to AAPL members. Content includes association updates and highlights, and each issue features our education calendar, certification applicants, newly certified members, NAPE news as well as quick links to frequently visited web pages.

Our education email campaigns are delivered once a month on the first Tuesday to our entire database made up of all education event attendees — which includes both AAPL members and non-members. Content includes featured events, upcoming education courses, certification testing dates and professional development opportunities.

Advertising space is available on a individual email basis; please inquire about availability.

of U.S. consumers say they trust print media the most, compared to TV, catalogues, radio, outdoor and others.²

▶ LANDMAN MAGAZINE

The Landman is the premier journal of the energy land management profession. The magazine tracks operational procedures, legislative activity, environmental developments and up-to-date oil and gas interests with technical articles as well as columns from AAPL's leadership.

READERSHIP

The Landman is mailed to AAPL's membership, which represents a broad cross-section of the industry, ranging from decision-makers in multi-functional independent companies to VPs at major Fortune 500 corporations with thousands of employees and multi-billion dollar budgets. Our secondary audience includes attorneys, geologists, engineers and other exploration specialists who value the technical content.

MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY

The Membership Directory is an excellent tool for landmen and other energy industry professionals all year long. Containing alphabetical, geographical and company listings of our membership along with association resources — such as AAPL's Bylaws, Code of Ethics and certification program specifications — the directory guarantees exposure to thousands of potential clients over and over again.

READERSHIP

The Membership Directory is mailed each year to AAPL's membership. This expansive resource guide provides immediate access to AAPL's membership of over 12,000 landmen in a clear and organized manner. In addition to the printed directory, the electronic version's search feature makes finding a landman by name, company and geographical region quick and easy.

UNIQUE ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Have a little fun with your advertising by upgrading your reach to our audience. The following special advertising avenues provide a higher return on investment by displaying your message in upfront, unique ways that catch our readers' eyes.

DIRECT-MAIL INSERTS save on mailing costs by including a promotional piece (postcard, brochure, flier, etc.) with our publications. Direct-mail pieces are perfect for advertising a new product or promoting an event, such as your booth number in the upcoming NAPE Expo. Space is limited to five pieces per issue.

A BELLY BAND is a hand-placed piece that wraps around the publication and must be removed by the reader to open the publication, guaranteeing exclusive exposure to your company. Limited to one per issue.

A TIP-IN insert is a stand-alone item that is attached with temporary glue to an internal page in the publication. It's a great way to draw extra attention to your company ad and provide a takeaway piece for the reader.
